Mass£na and Guieu are pursuing the enemy on the Miir. Yesterday we made 600 prisoners, and killed and wounded a number of their rear guard, which Prince Charles commanded in person.

4th, Scheifling:

Massena's division will advance along the road to Leoben.

5th, Judenburg:

The enemy appear to be retreating more hastily. Prince Charles has sent in a staff officer to ask for a suspension of hostilities for four hours, — an absolutely inadmissible proposal.

7th, morning :

(To Generals Merveldt and Bellegarde.) In the present situation of the two armies a suspension of hostilities is all against the interests of the French army; but if it is intended as a step towards the peace that is so needed by both peoples, I readily accede to your wishes.

6 P.M.:

Order for General Massena to start with his whole division for Leoben, which he is to occupy. Midnight :

An armistice is agreed on until the 13th of April. 8th, Judenburg: (To the Directoire.)
